

FASAN – STUBE

The Fasan-Stube is the new insider tip in Hamburg's city center. Its unique charm evokes a time that seems almost lost in the midst of modern concepts. With its warm ambience of brown-wood furniture, cozy, refurbished benches, and lovingly decorated walls full of nostalgia, the Fasan-Stube invites you to leave the stress of everyday life behind.

The weekly changing specialities are presented in true style and reflect the diversity of northern German cuisine.

The happy and dedicated service crew ensures all guests feel welcome – whether locals, tourists, or people who work nearby. While some spend their lunch break quickly and enjoyably with a tasty dish, some come in and enjoy the first freshly tapped beer of the day at the bar; others raise a toast to the first warm day of the year with an Aperol in the sunny outdoor area.

If you have any questions about allergies, please ask a staff member; we will be happy to help.

The Fasan-Stube represents community and warmth in the heart of Hamburg's lively city center.

We look forward to welcoming guests from Hamburg, Germany and other corners of the world!
